Attorney for Debtor

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
LOS ANGELES DIVISION

In re:

EDMOND CHOUTEAU,

Debtor.

Case No.: 2:22-bk-12229-WB

Chapter 13

DEBTOR'S MOTION FOR HARDSHIP
DISCAHRGE PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C.
§1328(b)

[no hearing required unless requested
under LBR 9013-1o)]

TO THE HONORABLE JULIA W. BRAND, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY
JUDGE, THE CHAPTER 13 TRUSTEE, AND ALL INTERESTED PARTIES:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Debtor, EDMOND CHOUTEAU, will and hereby does move the Court for an order granting a hardship discharge. This motion is made under Bankruptcy Code section 1328(b) on the grounds that the Debtor's inability to complete his Plan is due to circumstances beyond his control, that the funds actually distributed on account of each allowed unsecured claim is not less than would have been paid had the case been filed under Chapter 7, and modification is not feasible. This motion is based on all pleadings, papers and records in this action, on the attached memorandum of points and authorities and on the declaration of Edmond Chouteau.

Pursuant to LBR 9013-1(o), this Motion may be granted without a hearing. If you wish to oppose this Motion, you must file and serve a written response and request for hearing with the

1 Court no later than 14 days after the date stated on the Proof of Service of this Motion, plus 3
2 additional days if you were served by mail.

3 Failure to timely file and serve a written response to this Motion may be treated as a
4 waiver of your right to oppose the Motion and the Court may grant the relief requested herein
5 without further notice of a hearing.

7 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

8 11 U.S.C. § 1328(b) provides that, at any time after the confirmation of a Chapter 13 plan
9 and after notice and a hearing, the Court may grant a discharge to a debtor who has not 10 completed plan payments if:

- 11 1. The debtor's failure to complete such payments is due to circumstances for which the 12 debtor should not justly be held accountable;
- 13 2. The value, as of the effective date of the plan, of property actually distributed under the 14 plan on account of each allowed unsecured claim is not less than the amount that would 15 have been paid on such claim if the estate had been liquidated under Chapter 7; and
- 16 3. Modification of the plan is not practicable.

17 Courts have interpreted § 1328(b) as requiring a fact-specific analysis. A hardship
18 discharge is an equitable remedy designed to address unforeseen, insurmountable obstacles to 19 plan completion, such as illness, disability, or other serious disruption to income.

21 A. Debtor's Failure to Complete Payments Is Attributable to 22 Extraordinary Circumstances Beyond His Control

23 Debtor's plan was confirmed on December 1, 2022. Shortly thereafter, he suffered a
24 cascade of debilitating medical setbacks related to Charcot foot, a degenerative musculoskeletal
25 condition. Despite severe physical limitations, he returned to work prematurely against medical 26 advice in order to provide for his family. His efforts worsened the condition, ultimately leading

1 to a fracture, multiple rounds of casting, warnings of potential amputation, and a major surgery
2 in late 2023 that left him bedridden through early 2024.

3 During this time, Debtor's income was dramatically reduced. State disability payments
4 were limited in amount and duration. His permanent disability application was delayed due to the
5 surgical complications and was not approved until July 2024. For nearly a year, Debtor survived
6 with no income at all. Despite this, he continued to make plan payments as long as he could. His
7 inability to complete the 60-month term is directly attributable to a severe and progressively
8 disabling medical condition, and not due to any willful act, neglect, or misuse of the process.
9 These circumstances fall squarely within the types of events contemplated by § 1328(b)(1).

11 B. Distributions to Unsecured Creditors Are Not Less
12 Than a Hypothetical Chapter 7 Liquidation

13 The confirmed Chapter 13 plan, as reflected in the confirmation order, required that 14 unsecured creditors receive not less than a 20% dividend, amounting to $10,111. As of the date
15 of this motion, more than $10,111 has been paid to unsecured creditors under the plan.
16 During the life of the case, Debtor's spouse, Tesha Chouteau, received a modest inheritance.
17 Rather than retaining those funds, she paid them into the Chapter 13 plan in order to ensure that
18 their vehicles would be paid through the plan and that unsecured creditors would receive at least
19 as much as they would have in a Chapter 7 liquidation. That inheritance has now spent on plan
20 payments and ordinary living expenses.

21 Accordingly, the value of distributions made to unsecured creditors is not less than what
22 they would have received in a Chapter 7 liquidation. The attached Trustee's pay history shows
23 that the amount distributed to unsecured creditors satisfies the Chapter 7 liquidation threshold
24 required under 11 U.S.C. § 1328(b)(2). Courts have consistently held that full compliance with 25 the Chapter 7 liquidation test is a precondition to hardship discharge relief.

C. Modification of the Plan Is Not Practicable

Section 1328(b)(3) requires that plan modification be impracticable. Debtor's current income consists of permanent state disability payments that are significantly below his prepetition earnings. As of the date of this motion, his household has no material disposable income, and updated Schedules I and J (filed concurrently) reflect a monthly shortfall. Debtor has no realistic ability to increase income.

CONCLUSION

Debtor has made every good faith effort to comply with the terms of his plan but is no longer able to do so due to circumstances beyond his control. He has satisfied the statutory requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 1328(b), and a hardship discharge is appropriate.

For the foregoing reasons, Debtor respectfully requests that the Court enter an order granting him a hardship discharge.

DECLARATION OF EDMOND CHOUTEAU

I, Edmond Chouteau, declare as follows:

1. I am one of the Debtors in the above-referenced bankruptcy proceeding. I have personal knowledge of all matters stated herein and if called to testify I could competently testify thereto.
2. I filed this bankruptcy case on April 20, 2022, in good faith and with the sincere intention of repaying my creditors to the best of my ability. My Chapter 13 plan was confirmed on December 1, 2022.
3. Prior to filing, I had been experiencing significant financial strain due to drastically reduced work hours at the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic. My income was reduced to nearly a third of what it had been, and I relied on credit to pay for basic living expenses.
4. In October 2020, I was diagnosed with Charcot foot, a degenerative condition affecting the bones and joints in my foot. I was placed in a cast and instructed not to bear weight on the foot. I remained in a cast for most of the following year and was on state disability during this period.
5. Because my income during the early part of the pandemic was low, my disability benefits were significantly reduced. In August 2021, those benefits expired, and rather than endure 10–12 months of delay in applying for permanent disability, I went back to work against medical advice. I had no other choice.
6. I worked intermittently through the end of 2022, taking short medical leaves to allow my foot to rest. In November 2022, I broke the main bone in my foot while walking and was placed in a cast again. At that time, I was warned that I had caused further permanent damage and risked amputation.
7. Despite these setbacks, I continued to make my plan payments for as long as I could. In April 2023, I applied for permanent state disability benefits. In October 2023, I underwent a surgery intended to improve my condition. That surgery led to serious complications that left me bedridden through January 2024.

8. My disability benefits stopped during this time, and I had no income for nearly nine months. In July 2024, I was finally approved for permanent disability. My current income is significantly lower than what I earned when the plan was confirmed.

9. During this case, my wife, Tesha Chouteau, received a modest inheritance. We used the full amount to support our family and to pay into the plan so that our vehicles would be paid off and creditors would receive at least as much as they would have in a Chapter 7.

10. I am now permanently disabled and physically unable to return to my former employment. I have made every effort to meet my obligations under the plan. My household has no disposable income, and it is not practicable to further modify the plan.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.
